

Campagnolo celebrates its 50 years...

Exactly 50 years ago,
Tullio Campagnolo said goodbye to other people's derailleurs.

For 50 years people have been saying hello to Campagnolo.

And starting to thin

The 50th Anniversary is an important date. It is a moment of reflection, of verification, of jubilation as well as a moment of balance and synthesis. Yet above all, it is a time of renewal to the challenge we put before ourselves in our constant search for perfection. Campagnolo wishes to share its delight with the world, informing everyone by means of its newest and most glamorous products: the 50th Anniversary group and the freewheel.

This means that Campagnolo celebrates its past 50 years already thinking to the next 50 years. Advertising of the 50th Anniversary group has been scheduled in three consumer publications* as well as Campagnolo was born 50 years ago. Today, The 50th Anniversary Group is born.

1983: Campagnolo is 50 years old. Fifty years of victories not only in the cycling field, but above all, in the technical field. Now, more than ever before in the development of the bicycle, the world looks to Campagnolo to lead the way.

Now, on this "golden anniversary," Campagnolo celebrates this event with another event: "The 50th Anniversary Group."

This exclusive group, produced in a limited series, is signed, numbered and registered, and is dedicated to all the fans that consider cycling not only a sport and an ecological activity, but also a way of life.

The 50th Anniversary group is presented in a special carrying case exclusively designed by Campagnolo, which afterwards can be utilized for many other purposes. There is also the Campagnolo "Blue" Card; upon validation, it registers the original owner directly with Campagnolo and guarantees access to the unique replacement parts.

Thus, a Campagnolo group could have been surpassed only by another Campagnolo group: this one of the 50th Anniversary !!
